

Dr John Rogerson Energy Field Imaging.
"Health advice, treatment with wellness guidance report."

John has several years' healthcare experience from a wide range of disciplines. He combines practical suggestions with easy to follow recommendations. He determines your energy using Energy Field imaging, a technology which he developed. EFi is a safe & accurate visual method to show the body's health. Interestingly it reveals where stress & ease are sited in clear pictures & vivid colours.

John then gives valuable insights as to why we get sick, together with beneficial health recommendations & treatments to tackle issues. Sessions last an hour with results, images & voice recommendations put on a CD for you to take home. Simple - Safe - Empowering
